JAMES CORNELIUS KASEY,	)
	)	The Hon. Ronald M. Whyte
Defendant.	)

Defendant, James Kasey, through his counsel, Assistant Federal Public Defender Angela Hansen, respectfully requests that the conditions of his pre-trial release previously set by the Honorable Richard Seeborg on February 2, 2006 be modified to permit Mr. Kasey to travel to Arapahoe County, Colorado.

The purpose of this travel request is so that Mr. Kasey can handle a pending Colorado warrant on a misdemeanor case from 1999. Mr. Kasey has retained counsel in Colorado (Ms. Lisa Moses) and plans to resolve this matter before he is set to self-surrender to serve his federal sentence in June 2007. Mr. Kasey is eager to resolve this pending Colorado matter so that his BOP designation and release date will not be impacted by this outstanding warrant.

Assistant United States Attorney Susan Knight has no objection to this travel request and agrees to this proposed stipulation. Pretrial Services Officer Hence Williams has been notified and counsel learned through a supervising pretrial officer, Jaime Carranza, that Mr. Williams has

1 no objections to this travel request. Mr. Kasey does not yet know when his court date in
2 Colorado will be scheduled, but will give his pretrial officer a full travel itinerary once he has
3 that information.

4 It is further stipulated that all other conditions of release shall remain in full force and
5 effect until Mr. Kasey is required to self-surrender to the BOP.
